

Course in EMG, Neurography and Neuromuscular ultrasound Clinical Neurophysiology of the Peripheral Nervous system

Uppsala October 2—5, 2023

Organizer: Department of Clinical Neurophysiology, Uppsala University Hospital.

Course directors: Anna Rostedt Punga, professor and consultant, MD, PhD, Maarika Liik, Consultant MD, PhD.

Faculty: Anna Rostedt Punga, Maarika Liik, Arne Sandberg, Bjarne Udd, Nens van Alfen, Karin Edebol Eeg-Olofsson, Elisabeth Chroni, Erik Stålberg, Björn Falck, and Uppsala staff members.

Description: The course is a comprehensive training course and includes EMG, neurography, neuromuscular ultrasound and related techniques.

Language: English

Participants: The participants are expected to have basic knowledge in the field of EMG and neurography. The course will be of interest for clinical neurophysiologists in training (part of the Swedish residency program, LIPUS certified SK-kurs), neurologists and for those referring patients to the EMG lab such as pediatric neurologists and medical rehabilitation physicians.

Course topics:

- Principles, recording and analysis methods of neurography, EMG, neuromuscular ultrasound as well as methods to study neuromuscular transmission failure.
- Indications, strategies and typical findings of electrodiagnostic studies in neuromuscular disorders as well as pediatric aspects of clinical neurophysiology.
- Interpretation of findings as well as sources of error regarding neurophysiological methods of the peripheral nervous system.

Registration: Number of participants is restricted to 20. Cost 10.000 SEK (includes course material, coffee, lunches at the department and one dinner). There will be a possibility to apply for reduced fee for participants from low-income countries.

You find the registration form on: <https://neurofys.regionuppsala.se/Courses.html>

Deadline: May, 31st 2023

Travelling arrangements and hotel reservations: Needs to be arranged by the participants themselves. More information about hotel reservations will be available once your registration is confirmed.

Payment: Invoices will be sent when the deadline for registration has passed.
